

SUMMARY OF MEETINGS

Tuesday, 7 October 2003

High-level segment

Item 2 Interdependence and global economic issues from a trade and development perspective: Capital accumulation, economic growth and structural changes in developing countries

An interactive debate took place with the following panellists: Mr. John Alfred Weiss, Director of the Research Institute of the Asian Development Bank (ADB) in Tokyo; Ms. Barbara Fritz, Senior Researcher at the Institute for Ibero-American Studies in Hamburg; and Mr. Glauco Arbix, Director-General of the Institute of Applied Economic Research (IPEA) in Brasilia and Professor in the Department of Sociology of the University of Sao Paulo.

* * * * *

946th plenary meeting

Item 2 Interdependence and global economic issues from a trade and development perspective: Capital accumulation, economic growth and structural change

The general debate continued under this item. Statements were made by the following representatives: China; India; United States of America; Republic of Korea; Bangladesh; Belarus; and the Russian Federation. The plenary thus concluded its general debate on agenda item 2.