

How to get to the Palais des Nations

Taxis, Buses and the railway service link the Geneva Airport (Cointrin) with the Cornavin Station (main station) in downtown Geneva every few minutes. From here, most hotels can be accessed via a range of public transport options including bus, trams and taxis.

Transport tickets can be purchased at the ticket machines next to the tram / bus stops and can also be bought at the Geneva Transport Office (TPG office on the ground floor of the Gare Cornavin (main train station).

Cards for multiple trips can also be purchased at a reduced rate from newsagents in town bearing the "TPG" sign.

Maps of the Geneva bus / tram network are available on the TPG (Geneva Public Transport) website.

Participants are requested to use the Pregny Gate entrance situated at 14, Avenue de la Paix, which is a five-minute walk from the main entrance.

To enter the Palais des Nations, you will need a security pass, which is to be worn at all times on the premises. Upon arrival at the building you are therefore kindly requested to collect your badge at the United Nations Security Service, Pregny entrance (visitors' entrance, a five-minute walk from the main entrance). The Security Service is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. (non-stop).

As the Global Commodities Forum starts at 10 a.m. on a Monday morning, you are advised to arrive by 8.30 a.m. at the latest, to complete the security procedures and arrive at the meeting room in good time.

Please see:

- Official Palais des Nations Map

Useful links

- Geneva International Airport
- Geneva Tourist Office
- TPG Transports publics genevois:
 - Bus and Tram line timetables to and from Nations. The Palais des Nations can be reached by buses and trams. Bus numbers 5, 8, 11, 22, 28, F, V, and Z and tram numbers 13 and 15 stop at the Palais des Nations.

