REVIEW OF UNCTAD VIRTUAL CATALOGUE OF INTERNATIONAL BEST PRACTICES ON COMPETITION AND CONSUMER POLICIES

Background: Requests from member states

Agreed conclusions of the 2nd session of the IGE Consumer:

10. Emphasizes the importance of regional cooperation in the enforcement of consumer protection law and policy; invites consumer protection authorities to strengthen their bilateral, regional and international cooperation; and requests the UNCTAD secretariat to explore, gather and promote best practices for international cooperation, in light of guidelines 79 to 94

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE UNCTAD VIRTUAL CATALOGUE

- Targets all UNCTAD member States' competition and consumer protection authorities, in particular those that are young or small authorities.
- Its major objective is to share international best practices in a user-friendly way to all interested authorities.
- The information is exclusively fed by competition and consumer protection authorities and administered by the UNCTAD Secretariat.
- The UNCTAD Secretariat thanks the Competition and Consumer Authority of Peru (INDECOPI) for the generosity in preparing the site, inserting the data and publish it under UNCTAD website.
