Social Media and Website Strategies

Breakout session | Agency Effectiveness Working Group

How agencies communicate externally via social media and their websites and what value the agencies get from their use

- Siún O’Keeffe, Senior Strategy Advisor, Authority for Consumers and Markets, Netherlands (Chair)
- Cynthia Lagdameo, Counsel for international Antitrust, United States Federal Trade Commission (FTC)
- Raymond Ng, Senior Assistant Director, Competition Commission of Singapore
- Kristina Geiger, Deputy Director-General, Swedish Competition Authority
- Meriam Triki, Case-handler, Public Services Advisor, Tunisian Competition Council

Incentives and Strategy When Making Leniency Applications

Breakout session | Cartel Working Group

An effective leniency program facilitates both detection and deterrence—the two pillars on which cartel enforcement of any competition authority is founded. The BOS will discuss the incentives and strategies that are pursued by leniency applicants as to the choice of the jurisdiction for making the application or parallel application, in particular, if they have to pay compensation or face criminal sanctions.

- Anne Wachsmann, Partner, Linklaters, France
- Eduardo Caminati, Partner, Lino, Beraldi, Belluzzo e Caminati, Brazil
- Gerwin Van Gerven, Linklaters, Belgium
- Cholsoo Han, Lawyer, Yoon&Yang, Korea
- Weijer Verloren van Themaat, Partner, Houthoff Buruma, Netherlands
- Luis G. García Santos Coy, Partner, Creel, García-Cuellar, Aiza y Enriquez, S.C., Mexico

Fines and Criminal Sanctions Against Cartels

Breakout session | Cartel Working Group

Sanctions are a tool to deter cartel activity. It is essential to understand the debate regarding the choice of criminal or civil/administrative sanctions for hard-core cartel conduct. The BOS will compare the records of both systems and will discuss what the implementation of each of the systems entails.

14:30 - 15:45

- María Ortiz, Member of the Board, Spanish National Authority for Markets and Competition (CNMC)
- Saiko Nakajima, Deputy Director, Planning Office, Investigation Bureau, Japan Fair Trade Commission
- Kris Dekeyser, Director, Policy and Strategy, DG Competition, European Commission
- Peter Whelan, Associate Professor in Law, University of Leeds, United Kingdom
- Gideon N. Mokaya, Manager, Enforcement and Compliance, Kenya Competition Authority
- Felipe Garcia, Head Advisor to the Superintendent Superintendence for Industry and Commerce, Colombia

Excessive Prices - is this a matter for competition regulation?

Breakout session | Unilateral Conduct Working Group

Most unilateral conduct laws are understood to prohibit excessive pricing under some circumstances, but the circumstances are unsettled. In contrast, some jurisdictions view excessive pricing enforcement as inconsistent with competition law. This session will address competition principles relevant to excessive pricing enforcement and present contrasting views.

- Patricia Brink, Director, Civil Enforcement, United States Department of Justice Antitrust Division
- Naoko Teranishi, Chief Deputy Director, Trade Practices Division, Japan Fair Trade Commission
- Alessandra Tonazzi, Director, International Affairs Office, Acting Director, EU Affairs Office, Italian Competition Authority
- Luc Gyselen, Managing Partner, Arnold Porter Kaye Scholer, Belgium
- Andrew Groves, Project Director, Competition and Markets Authority, United Kingdom

Online Vertical Restraints

Breakout session | Unilateral Conduct Working Group

Vertical restraints in digital markets, including in the online travel sector and the use of parity clauses, present issues of interest to competition agencies. The session will compare and contrast the approaches that agencies have taken.

- Marcus Bezzi, Executive General Manager, Competition Enforcement, Australian Competition and Consumer Commission
- Trine Osen Bergqvist, Deputy Head of Unit, Swedish Competition Authority
- Brigit Krueger, Head, General Policy Division, Bundeskartellamt, Germany
- James Musgrove, Partner, McMillan, Canada

16:15 - 17:30	Sharpening Investigation Tools (Agencies-only session) Breakout session Cartel Working Group Considering the secrecy in which national/global cartels flourish, the investigation needs to be professional and strategically planned in order to uncover the details of the cartel activity. The use of modern communication tools poses significant challenges to the competition authorities investigating cartels and may create the illusion of impunity. The BOS will look at new investigation instruments and techniques, such as whistle-blower programmes, the use of Open Source Intelligence (OSINT) and forensic IT and explore whether more traditional techniques, such as paper searches and interviews are still useful in the age of digitalisation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Makgale Mohlala, Manager, Cartels Division, Competition Commission of South Africa • Isabel López Gálvez, Head of Cartels and Leniency Unit, Spanish National Authority for Markets and Competition (CNMC) • Peter Alstergren, Senior Adviser, Swedish Competition Authority • Tzu-Shun Hu, Deputy Director, Fair Trade Commission, Taiwan • József Sárai, Head, International Section, Hungarian Competition Authority • Pierre Rauchs, President, Competition Council, Luxembourg
	International Cooperation Breakout session Cartel Working Group International cooperation is the key to tackle cross border or global cartels. The BOS will explore how to improve exchange of information amongst agencies, the key moments and matters for coordination between agencies and discuss whether and when simultaneous international actions can be complementary, redundant or counterproductive. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Antonio Capobianco, Senior Expert in Competition Law, OECD • Hideyuki Shimozu, Senior Officer for Leniency Program, Japan Fair Trade Commission • Andrey Tsyganov, Deputy Head, Federal Antimonopoly Service, Russia • Teresa Moreira, Head, UNCTAD Competition Policy and Consumer Protection Branch • Kürşat Ünlüsoy, Vice-President, Turkish Competition Authority • Parret Muteto, Chief Investigator in Mergers & Monopolies Division, Competition and Consumer Protection Commission (CCPC), Zambia

Challenges of Big Data and Unilateral Conduct

Breakout session | Unilateral Conduct Working Group

Corruption and Bid-rigging

Breakout session | Cartel Working Group

Bid rigging and corruption both distort the aim of procurement processes and go against the basic tenets of competition law principles. While bid rigging is a form of anti-competitive agreement between similarly placed bidders, the corruption issues are even more intricate considering their effects on the level playing field. The BOS will deal with methods to detect red flag situations by identifying improper submissions made during procurement procedures and discuss ways to tackle such illicit conduct under competition rules.
