II. Annotations to the provisional agenda

Inaugural ceremony

5. The inaugural ceremony of the fourteenth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development will be held on the afternoon of Sunday, 17 July 2016, on the premises of the Kenyatta International Convention Centre in Nairobi. A detailed programme will be circulated prior to this event.

Item 1

Opening of the Conference

6. The rules of procedure of the Conference are contained in document TD/63/Rev.2.
7. The opening plenary meeting of the fourteenth session of the Conference will be held on the afternoon of Sunday, 17 July 2016, on the premises of the Kenyatta International Convention Centre.
8. Rule 16 of the rules of procedure of the Conference provides as follows: “At the opening of each session of the Conference, the head of that delegation from which the President of the previous session was elected shall preside until the Conference has elected a President for the session.”

Item 2

Election of the President

9. Rule 17 of the rules of procedure of the Conference provides, among other things, that the Conference shall elect a President from among its members.
10. It is customary for the head of the delegation of the host country (Kenya) to be elected as President of the Conference.

Item 3

Establishment of sessional bodies

11. In accordance with rule 62 of the rules of procedure of the Conference, the Conference may wish to establish a main committee (Committee of the Whole) to consider and report on the specific substantive items referred to it by the plenary. In line with rule 63, the main committee may set up such subsidiary bodies as may be required to carry out its functions.
12. Pursuant to rule 65 of the rules of procedure of the Conference, the main committee shall elect a Chair, a Vice-Chair and a Rapporteur. Under rule 17, the Chair of the main committee shall be elected before the election of the Vice-Presidents of the Conference and, in accordance with rule 22, shall be a member of the Bureau of the Conference.

Item 4

Election of Vice-Presidents and the Rapporteur

13. In accordance with rule 22 of the rules of procedure of the Conference, the Bureau of the Conference shall consist of 35 members, comprising the President and Vice-Presidents of the Conference, the Chair of the Committee of the Whole and the Rapporteur of the Conference. The Conference will need, therefore, to elect 32 Vice-Presidents.
14. The Conference may wish to decide that the composition of the Bureau of the Conference should be such as to ensure equitable geographical distribution, i.e. seven members from Africa, seven from Asia, seven from Latin America, nine from Group B, four from Group D, and China. In accordance with past practice, the regional coordinators and chairs of subsidiary bodies should be fully associated with the work of the Bureau.

Item 5

Credentials of representatives to the Conference

(a) Appointment of the Credentials Committee

15. Rule 14 of the rules of procedure of the Conference provides as follows: “A Credentials Committee shall be appointed at the beginning of each session. It shall consist of nine members, who shall be appointed by the Conference upon the proposal of the President. The Committee shall elect its own officers. It shall examine the credentials of representatives and report to the Conference.”

16. In keeping with past practice, the Conference may wish to decide that the Credentials Committee shall be composed of the same nine States as were members of the Credentials Committee of the General Assembly at its most recent (seventieth) session.

(b) Report of the Credentials Committee

17. In accordance with rule 14 of the rules of procedure of the Conference, the Credentials Committee shall examine the credentials of representatives and report to the Conference. Rule 13 provides that the credentials of representatives and the names of alternate representatives and advisers shall be submitted to the Secretary-General of the Conference, if possible not less than one week before the date fixed for the opening of the session. The credentials shall be issued either by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

Item 6

Adoption of the agenda

18. As indicated in the introductory note to the present document, the substantive item of the provisional agenda (item 8) and its sub-themes were approved by the Trade and Development Board at its sixty-second session, held on 14–25 September 2015.

19. Suggestions regarding the organization of work of the Conference will be circulated in an addendum to the present document (TD/501/Add.1).

General debate

20. The general debate is expected to open on the afternoon of Monday, 18 July 2016, in the Shimba Hall of the Kenyatta International Convention Centre, and to conclude on Thursday, 21 July 2016. Statements will be broadcast on the Internet in accordance with the order in which delegations have been included on the list of speakers. The texts of statements that are provided electronically to the secretariat will be uploaded on the Conference website in the language version(s) in which they are received by the secretariat.* Information on the list of speakers has been provided in a note.

21. In accordance with rule 39 of the rules of procedure of the Conference, and with guidelines approved by the General Assembly, speakers will be requested to limit their interventions to a maximum of seven minutes. To this end, delegations might consider making available the full text of their statements and concentrating on salient features during interventions in the general debate.

Item 8

From decision to action: Moving towards an inclusive and equitable global economic environment for trade and development

- (a) Challenges and opportunities in multilateralism for trade and development
- (b) Promoting sustained, inclusive and sustainable economic growth through trade, investment, finance and technology to achieve prosperity for all
- (c) Advancing economic structural transformation and cooperation to build economic resilience and address trade and development challenges and opportunities, at all levels, within the UNCTAD mandate
- (d) Contributing to the effective implementation of and follow-up to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and relevant outcomes from global conferences and summits, as related to trade and development

22. Under this item, the Conference is expected to have before it a pre-Conference text prepared by the Preparatory Committee for the Conference, which was established by the Trade and Development Board at its sixty-second session in September 2015 and chaired by the President of the Board. The text will be transmitted to the Conference by the Board meeting in special session, after it is received from the Preparatory Committee for the Conference in Geneva.

23. Under this item, the Conference will also hold the following eight high-level events, focused on the theme and sub-themes as a whole or in part. The high-level events will be as follows: (a) implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals – opportunities and challenges; (b) transforming economies for sustainable and inclusive growth; (c) building economic resilience for the most vulnerable; (d) bolstering public policies for vibrant and inclusive markets; (e) promoting a global environment for prosperity for all; (f) making innovation a driver for sustainable development; (g) fostering Africa’s structural transformation; and (h) a ministerial segment of the Youth Forum.

24. Furthermore, the Conference will have before it two reports from the hearings with civil society, held as part of its preparatory process, as transmitted by the Trade and Development Board.

25. The Conference will also have before it the submission of the Secretary-General of UNCTAD (UNCTAD(XIV)/1/Rev.1), as well as any other submissions to it by member States or groups of member States. More detailed information on documentation will be provided at a later stage.

Item 9

Other business

- (a) Periodic review by the Conference of the lists of States contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 1995 (XIX)

26. The membership of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development and of the Trade and Development Board is listed in document TD/B/INF.228.

27. Paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 1995 (XIX), as amended, states that the lists of States contained in the annex to that resolution “shall be reviewed periodically by the Conference in the light of changes in the membership of the Conference and other factors". The list was last reviewed by the Conference at its thirteenth session in 2012. The Conference will be apprised of any action to be taken.

(b) Report of the Trade and Development Board to the Conference

28. Pursuant to paragraph 22 of General Assembly resolution 1995 (XIX), the attention of the Conference shall be drawn to the reports of the Trade and Development Board submitted to the General Assembly since the thirteenth session of the Conference.

29. The Conference may wish to take note of the reports of the sessions of the Trade and Development Board since the thirteenth session of the Conference.

(c) Financial implications of the actions of the Conference

30. Estimates of any financial implications of action proposed by the Conference shall be submitted by the secretariat, if required, in pursuance of rule 32 of the rules of procedure of the Conference.

Item 10

Adoption of the report of the Conference to the General Assembly

31. In accordance with past practice, the report of the Conference will be submitted to the General Assembly.
