

ISI WSC 2019

STS-570 Multinational profit shifting and illicit flows: Can we measure them?

20 August 2019, 16:00-17:40

Meeting room 301, level 3

16:00 – 16:15

Welcome, background and presentation of speakers

Fernando Cantú, UNCTAD

16:15-16:30

Presentation 1: Measuring global activity of multinational corporations

Mary Everett, Central Bank of Ireland

16:30-16:45

Presentation 2: The emergence of legal and organisational arrangements to minimise global tax burden, and its impact on monitoring domestic economic activities

Peter van de Ven, OECD

16:45-17:00

Presentation 3: Multinational profit shifting - measurement challenges in the external account

Tjeerd Jellema, European Central Bank

17:00-17:20

Discussion with panelists

Anu Peltola, UNCTAD

17:20-17:35

Q&A from the audience

Moderator: Fernando Cantú

17:35-17:40

Summary and conclusions

Fernando Cantú