

Workshop

The circular economy and the bioeconomy: Emerging approaches in South and Southeast Asia

29 November 2022

Provisional Programme

Online, and in person Bangkok, Thailand
3–4:30 pm JKT (UTC+7)

- 3–3:10 pm Welcome and check-in
Background context
Panelist introduction
Ms. Kuntum Melati, SEI
- 3:10–3:20 Setting the stage
Mr. Francis X Johnson, SEI Senior Research Fellow, SEI Governing Bioeconomy Pathways Permanent Secretary
- 3:20–3:30 Lesson from circular economy programme
Mr. Henrique Pacini, Economic Affairs Officer, UNCTAD, Geneva; Technical adviser for the Sustainable Manufacturing and Environmental Pollution (SMEP) Programme
- 3:30–3:40 Bioeconomy case study from Thailand
Mr. Giovanni Tagliani, PhD student, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand, and University of Ferrara, Italy
- 3:40–3:50 The case of biogas and sustainable farming in the context of circular economy and bioeconomy
Dr. Takeshi Takama, CEO, su.re.co (Sustainability and Resilience) and Visiting Professor, Udayana University, Bali, Indonesia
- 3:50–4:20 Q & A
For FXJ: what kind of policy frameworks that you think would help to foster and accelerate bioeconomy implementation and innovation?
Ms. Kuntum Melati, SEI
- 4:30 Closing
Key takeaway from all panelists
Ms. Kuntum Melati, SEI

