

Joint UNCTAD-ISO training workshop on National Quality Infrastructure for the Angolan agrifood sector, with a focus on fisheries, tropical fruits and coffee

9 – 11 May 2023

PROGRAMME

Day 1: 9 May 2023
Welcoming remarks and introduction	Ms. Johanna Silvander Programme Management Officer Productive Capacities and Sustainable Development Branch UNCTAD	09h00-09h30
Opening remarks	Mr. Erich Kieck Director for Capacity Building - ISO Central Secretariat (online)
	Mr. Eddy Delaunay-Belleville Project Officer Delegation of the European Union in Angola
Presentation of speakers	Ms. Olga Dicamba, Director of INIQ	09h30- 09h50
Course introduction: objectives and presentation of the course program	Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius
TEA BREAK - 20 minutes		09h50 – 10h10
Introduction of participants and pre-evaluation		10h10 – 10h30
Definition, role, and purpose of Quality Infrastructure (National Quality Policy and Strategy)	Session 01 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	10h30 – 11h00
The components of a National Quality Infrastructure	Session 02 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	11h00 – 12h30

PAQI (Pan Africa Quality Infrastructure)	Session 03 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius
The current National Quality Infrastructure supporting the fish sector in Angola.	Session 04 Ms. Maria Vieira, Head of Department, Nacional Directorate of Quality Management and Production of Salt, Ministry of Fisheries and Marine Resources
LUNCH BREAK 1H		12h30 – 13h30
The current National Quality Infrastructure supporting the fruit sector in Angola.	Session 05 Ms Isabel Capitão Ferreira Miguel, Director General of the National Food Quality Control Service Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry Mr. Francisco Felix, Director of IBIKOH Africa	13h30 – 14h00
Survey results: Analysis of responses How to involve all the categories of stakeholders in the effective operation of the NQI (Stakeholder Contact and Involvement Tool)	Session 06 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	14h00-14h20
TEA BREAK - 20 minutes		14h20 – 14h40
Objective of the Group Work 1: To evaluate the existing Quality Infrastructure to support the achievement of national objectives for the fish, fruit, and coffee sectors. GROUP WORK 1: Analyze your country's quality infrastructure (SWOT Analysis), identify all categories of stakeholders (public, private) and describe their roles, responsibilities and interaction/involvement in the existing different forums for joint actions to support the fish, fruit and coffee sectors.		14h40 – 16h30
Questions and end of Day 1		16h30 – 17h00
Day 2: 10 May 2023
Feedback from day 1		09h00 – 09h15
Presentation by the Working Groups and discussion of findings from day 1		09h15 – 11h00
TEA BREAK - 20 minutes		11h00 – 11h20
Basic concepts of conformity assessment services with the different techniques and schemes (e.g., accreditation, certification, testing, inspection, etc.)	Session 07 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	11h20 – 11h40
Conformity assessment bodies, their performance and recognition	Session 08 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	11h40-12h00
LUNCH BREAK 1H		12h00 – 13h00

Diagnostic Toolkit to evaluate a National Quality Infrastructure	Session 09 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	13h00 – 13h40
Conformity Assessment Bodies in support of public policies	Session 10 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	13h40-14h10
Case study: Sustainability certification as a tool to add value to fisheries products	Mr. Rodrigo Sengo, Marine Stewardship Council	14h10-14h30
TEA BREAK - 20 minutes		14h30 – 14h45
Objective of the Group Work 2: To identify the difficulties that the fish, fruit and coffee sectors are facing to meet the current requirements for both the domestic and export markets. GROUP WORK 2: Using the principles (4 pillars approach) behind the diagnostic toolkit for evaluating the QI for the fish, fruit and coffee sector in Angola to come up with the current status of Angola for the 11 components. What are the requirements (administrative, regulatory, regional, and international) of the domestic and export market that exist in Angola for the Agrifood industry (focus on the fish, fruit and coffee sectors)? Which are the controlling agencies (Public and Private) for local consumption and for exports? Are there any support services which are used outside of Angola, their cost implications and impact on the competitiveness of Angolan product?		14h45 – 17h00
Questions and end of Day 2		17h00 – 17h15
Day 3: 11 May 2023
Feedback from day 2		09h00 – 09h15
Presentation of the Working Groups and discussion of their findings		09h15 – 10h45
Results of a diagnosis of an NQI in operation (based on the African context)	Session 11 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	10h45 – 11h00
TEA BREAK - 20 minutes		11h00 – 11h20
Obligations for signatories and other related stakeholders to the TBT Agreement	Session 12 Ms. Rashida Nanhuck ISO Expert, Mauritius	11h20 – 11h35
Role of National Standards Bodies (NSBs) and other institutions in the NQI in relation to Good Standardisation Practice (GSP) in Angola	Session 13 Ms. Joana Leandro - Chief of Department of Standardization, Conformity Assessment and Training - INIQ-MINDCOM	11h35-12h00
LUNCH BREAK 1H		12h00 – 13h30

Group Work Objective of the Group Work 3: To develop an action plan for an effective and efficient NQI for the fish and fruit sectors in Angola. GROUP WORK 3: What are the priorities identified within the current National Quality Infrastructure which need immediate support to be strengthened so as to gain international recognition? Come up with a matrix listing those institutions which are already in place and need to be strengthened and with any new ones with detailed information. Identify both the private and public sector institutions, their current role, and the way forward.		13h30 – 15h30
TEA BREAK & Networking 20 minutes		15h30 – 15h45
Working Group Presentation		15h45 – 17h15
Open discussions Workshop evaluation Closing of workshop		17h15 – 17h30