

Mr Jakob Lindvall

Senior Advisor, ALDAB Innovation, Sweden

Jakob Lindvall is a co-creating innovation advisor with multinational-company and global start-up experience. For decades he has developed, evaluated and improved incubators, STI Parks and clusters across Europe. Holding an MSc in Industrial Engineering and Management, he supports individual parks, regional ecosystems and policymakers with innovation strategies and experience-exchange initiatives.

Jakob builds frameworks for STI Parks that put relationships and connectedness at the ecosystem's core. He aligns venture support from ideation to scaling, embeds open-innovation platforms, and leads capacity-building peer-learning and peer-review programmes. His work develops, evaluates and improves parks to foster knowledge transfer, corporate-start-up collaboration and inclusive entrepreneurship worldwide.

Contact: sticourses@unctad.org