Tel. (+51 1) 610 7300

IX. ATTIRE

The dress code for all the meetings is business attire, unless otherwise advised.

Because the inter-sessional panel will take place during the summertime in Lima, light clothing is sufficient. Those traveling to other cities as part of touristic programmes are encouraged to consult tour operators on the attire suggested for each case.

X. COUNTRY GENERAL INFORMATION

a. Climate and weather

The Peruvian capital has a special climate due to the cold Humboldt current that flows along the coast. January is summertime in Lima, as the summer starts in December and lasts until late March. Days are very hot while evenings are less warm. During this season, the temperature varies between 24 °C and 30 °C and light clothing is sufficient. In general it seldom rains in Lima, so rain attire is not necessary.

Should you travel to other cities as part of touristic programmes, you are advised to consult the tour operator to learn about the weather conditions in the cities that will be visited. If you wish to visit the Andes and the rainforest, please note that it will be the rainy season, although rainfall is usually sporadic.

b. Currency and banking

The national currency in Peru is the Peruvian Nuevo Sol (denoted by S/.). Coins in circulation are in denominations of 10, 20, and 50 céntimos, as well as 1, 2, and 5 Nuevos Soles. Banknotes in circulation are in denominations of 10, 20, 50, 100, and 200 Nuevos Soles.

The exchange rate fluctuates freely, in accordance with market conditions. As of 19 December 2012, one U.S. dollar is equivalent to 2.6 Nuevos Soles. For current exchange rate information, please visit the Web site www.xe.com.

Currency can be exchanged without any restrictions, although it is recommended to exchange currency in hotels, banks, and the multiple foreign exchange offices that operate in the city. The majority of commercial establishments generally accept U.S. dollars. Euros can also be exchanged.

Most businesses accept the following credit cards: American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard, and Visa.

The primary commercial banks operating in Peru are (in alphabetical order):

- Banco de Comercio
- Banco de Crédito del Perú
- Banco de la Nación
- Banco Financiero
- BBVA Banco Continental
- Citibank
- HSBC Bank Peru
- Interbank—Banco Internacional del Perú
- Scotiabank

c. Taxes and fees

Goods purchased in Peru are subject to a General Sales Tax of 18%. General services (like restaurant consumption, hotel accommodations, etc.) are taxed at an additional rate of 10%.

In the past, an airport use tariff was charged when leaving the country via the Jorge Chávez International Airport. Now this tariff is already included in flight tickets (except for charter flights).

d. Time

The official local time of Peru is five hours before Greenwich Mean Time (GMT).

e. Electricity and water

In Peru, electricity is 220 V / 60 Hz. Participants are encouraged to bring adapters if required, although in most four and five-star hotels, 110 V outlets are also available.

Tap water is potable but it is not recommended for consumption, so it is suggested to drink bottled water.

f. Phone services

The country dialing code for Peru is +51 and the city dialing code for Lima is 1.

Please note that participants are responsible for all charges for personal phone calls made in hotel rooms.

The primary mobile phone operators in Peru are Claro, Nextel, and Telefónica del Perú.

g. Business hours

Local banks are open Monday to Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and on Saturday's from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Commercial opening hours (general stores) are Monday to Saturday, from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Shopping malls are also open on Sunday's.

h. Taxis

It is recommended that you use the taxi service proposed by the hotels or contact the following companies:

- Taxi Satelital Tel. (+51 1) 355-5555
(arrival in approximately 15 minutes)
- Taxi Seguro Tel. (+51 1) 241-9292
(arrival in approximately 20 minutes)
- Taxi San Borja Tel. (+51 1) 225-8600
(arrival in approximately 20 minutes)

i. Restaurants

- Restaurante La Gloria

Tel. (+51 1) 372-6868

j. Touristic programmes

Those who are interested in visiting Peruvian touristic destinations are invited to view the Web site of Condor Travel (www.condorviajes.com) and to learn more about programs that have been organized specifically for our guests.

k. Earthquake safety

Peru is located in a seismic zone where earthquakes occur frequently. Therefore please observe the following precautions:

- When entering premises, identify safety zones (they are designated with signs) and the nearest exit routes
- Stay calm
- Stay away from windows and anything that could fall
- Do not use elevators for any reason
- Do not run
- Stay in designated safety zones

- Follow the instructions of the security department of the premises
- Leave the premises in an orderly manner, following the evacuation signs which indicate the evacuation direction
- If possible, carry a flashlight

l. Smoking

Smoking is prohibited in the meeting venue (the García Bedoya Building of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Peru).

Hotels should be consulted directly to determine whether they have smoking restrictions.

m. Illicit drug trafficking

The illicit sale and trafficking of drugs are severely punishable crimes in Peru.

Do not accept any packages to take on your return trip. If you feel obliged to do so, open them and carefully examine them. Keep in mind that there are different methods of carrying drugs, such as embedding them in clothing.

Morning session:

Theme: Internet broadband for an inclusive digital society

The CSTD and ECOSOC have noted with concern that there is a growing digital divide in the availability, affordability, quality of access, and use of broadband, between high income countries and other regions, with Least Developed Countries and Africa as a continent lagging behind. This session will examine the current status of the digital divide, new and emerging trends in Internet broadband, and attempts to increase access and use. It will also explore potential opportunities for developing countries, addressing barriers and challenges which deserve policy attention.
