ARRIVAL AND ENTRY FORMALITIES

Visas and Customs Information

It is the responsibility of each traveler to have a valid passport and the appropriate visa. For business travelers from countries participating in the Visa Waiver Program, they must have an Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) clearance to travel to the United States. Passports must be valid for at least 6 months beyond the date of departure from the United States and must have sufficient pages for visa stamps. Please contact your local U.S. embassy or consulate or refer to <http://travel.state.gov/> for more information regarding U.S. visas.

The United States does not have a unique visa category for conference delegates. Normal procedures for requesting visas from U.S. embassies or consulates abroad for diplomats, international organization officials, employees of a foreign government, or business travelers should be followed.

Delegates will have received their invitation letters. All U.S. Mission's of the countries concerned have been requested to offer visa processing support. Please direct any questions or concerns to EB/CIP's Lynette Jackson at jacksonln@state.gov.

Overseas travelers will be processed by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officials upon arrival at the first United States Port of Entry, which for some may not be Washington, D.C. Travelers should complete the CPB form prior to entry into the International Arrivals Hall. Please refer to <http://www.cbp.gov/travel/> for more information regarding U.S. Customs and Border Protection requirements.

Baggage and Item Restrictions

Commercial airlines operating in the United States strictly enforce baggage size and weight limitations. Travelers should familiarize themselves with their airline's restrictions prior to traveling in order to avoid extra fees or complications. Additionally, U.S. security restrictions prohibit certain items onboard and limit the amount of liquid or gel items that can be taken in carry-on luggage. Travelers are strongly encouraged to review U.S. security restrictions prior to traveling, which can be found at: www.tsa.gov/travelers.

OFFICIAL LANGUAGE

English will be the official language for the panel.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND FACILITIES

All participants are strongly advised to have international health insurance coverage before they travel to the United States of America due to the high cost of medical care in the United States. A visit to a doctor's office could cost US$200 or more, and a single visit to a hospital emergency room could exceed US$ 1,000.00, depending on the services provided.

George Washington University hospital is located next to Foggy Bottom Metro Station and is the closest medical facility to the designated hotels and the U.S. Department of State. Their website is www.gwhospital.com.

GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Washington, D.C.
(202) 715-4000

There is a 24 hour CVS Pharmacy located opposite the U.S. Department of State and adjacent to The State Plaza Hotel on 2125 E St NW, (between N 21st St & N Virginia Ave), Washington, DC 20037.

Tel: (202) 338-6337.

ATTIRE

The dress code for all the meetings is business attire, unless otherwise advised. Because the inter-session panel will take place during the winter time in Washington, warm clothes are necessary. There will be coat storage facilities at the venue.

COUNTRY GENERAL INFORMATION

Climate and weather

While weather in Washington, D.C. is unpredictable in December, rain, snow, and cold temperatures are possible. Temperatures typically average from 30 to 50 degrees Fahrenheit (-1 to 10 degrees Celsius), so participants are advised to bring warm clothing. All recommended hotels are a short walk to the U.S. Department of State and there will be storage for coats at the conference site.

Currency and banking

Credit Cards

Major credit cards are widely accepted in Washington, D.C., although some small shops will only accept cash payments. Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Diners, and Discover can be used at most establishments. In the event that a card is lost or stolen, the appropriate U.S. numbers to call are:

American Express: 800-528-4800

Diners Club: 800-234-6377

Discover: 800-347-2683

MasterCard: 800-826-2181

Visa: 800-336-8472

Currency and ATMs

The official currency of the United States is the U.S. dollar ($). Because retailers generally do not accept other currencies, it is necessary for visitors to change foreign currency into U.S. dollars in order to make cash payments. Foreign currency can be exchanged at all area airports, as well as at a limited number of currency exchange locations in downtown Washington, D.C. Although some hotels do offer currency exchange services for guests, they often lack favorable rates and only deal with select currencies.

Because of the limited availability of currency exchange services in Washington, D.C., it is highly recommended that participants exchange currency either in the airport or prior to their arrival in the United States. Should participants need to exchange currency once in Washington, D.C., they are advised to speak with staff at their respective hotel for the closest exchange facility.

Additionally, ATMs are widely available in Washington, D.C. and can typically be used to withdraw U.S. dollars. Participants are advised that many banks impose fees on cash withdrawals, which may be higher for international transactions. Once again, your hotel will be the best source for the closest ATM to your hotel.

Taxes and fees

There are no airport departure fees in the United States. There is a 14.5% tax on accommodations in the District of Columbia. The sales tax in the District of Columbia and Maryland is 6%. The sales tax in Virginia is 4%.

Time

Washington, D.C.'s standard time is GMT -5 hours, or Eastern Standard Time (EST).

Electricity and water

The standard electricity supply in the United States is 110 to 120 volts AC (60 Cycles). Although some hotels will provide converters, it is advisable to check directly with the hotel in advance due to the limited availability of foreign converters for purchase.

Tap water in Washington, D.C. is safe to drink. Additionally, bottled water is widely available.

Earthquakes safety

While earthquakes are not common in the District, there is still a possibility that one could occur in or around the DC metropolitan area. <http://72hours.dc.gov>

In general, if you feel an earthquake you should:

- Take cover under a desk, table, bed or doorframe.
- Stay clear of windows and other glass.
- Stay put until the shaking stops.
- Find an open area clear of buildings and power lines if you are outdoors.
- Stop your vehicle (preferably in an open area).
- Listen to the radio and follow instructions.
- DO NOT enter damaged structures.
- Check all gas lines.
- Inspect chimney or have chimney inspected before using the fireplace.
- Expect to feel aftershocks, which are usually smaller in size, and take the aforementioned precautions.

For updates or to report a problem, call the Mayor's Citywide Call Center at 311.

Special needs

Any delegate who requires handicap-accessible or other special arrangements are requested to contact the logistics team with a brief description of needs in order to ensure that appropriate arrangements can be made.

ANNEX C

Metrorail

Each passenger needs a farecard to enter and exit. Up to two children under age five may travel free with a paying customer.

Fares are based on when and how far you ride. Station-to-station fares are located on station manager kiosks and farecard machines. Bring small bills because there are no change machines in the stations and farecard machines only provide up to $5 in change (in coins). FARECARDS & PASSES machines accept credit and debit cards.

Save money by using a SmarTrip® card instead of a paper farecard. See the SmarTrip® cards section for information on buying a card.

Get one day of unlimited Metrorail rides with a One Day Pass. Buy it from a Farecards and Passes machine in Metro stations.

Hours of service

Open: 5 a.m. Mon.-Fri. 7 a.m. Sat.-Sun.
Close: midnight Sun.-Thurs. 3 a.m. Fri.-Sat. nights

Last train times vary. To avoid missing the last train, please check the last train times posted in stations.

Fares for senior/disabled customers

Senior citizens 65 and older, people with disabilities and customers with a Medicare card may ride for half the regular fare. On Metrorail, use a senior/disabled farecard or SmarTrip® card. On Metrobus, use a senior/disabled SmarTrip® card or a senior/disabled bus pass (loaded on your SmarTrip® card) or show your Metro Disability ID or valid Medicare card and a photo ID and pay the senior/disabled fare. For details about qualifying for a Metro ID and buying senior/disabled farecards, SmarTrip® cards and passes, visit wmata.com or call 202-637-7000 (TTY 202-638-3780).

Free orientations on how to use accessible Metrobus and Metrorail services are available to senior citizens and people with disabilities by calling 202-962-1100 (TTY 202-962-2033).

SmarTrip® cards

SmarTrip® is a plastic farecard that can be reloaded with value and reused to pay Metrorail and Metrobus fares and parking fees at Metro-operated lots.

SmarTrip® cards are sold from dispensing machines at Metrorail stations. You can also buy a SmarTrip® card at over 200 retail locations, or online with a credit card. The price at dispensing machines is $10 ($5 for the card with $5 in value already on it). The price online is $30 ($5 for the card with $25 in value already on it). You can add value to your SmarTrip® card at FARECARDS & PASSES machines in Metrorail stations, at select retail locations and on our Web site. You can also check your registered card's value, see where and when you used it last or report it lost or stolen on our Web site.

Parking at Metro stations

During the week (through 3 a.m. Friday nights) there is a daily parking fee at Metro lots and garages. There is no parking fee on weekends and federal holidays. Cash is not accepted, except at metered spaces. All Metro lots and garages accept payment with a SmarTrip® card and most accept major credit cards. Daily parking fees vary by station and are posted at the parking entrance/exit and on our Web site.

Travel tips

To avoid long lines at farecard machines after a major event, make sure you have roundtrip fare on your SmarTrip® card (or buy a roundtrip farecard) at the start of your trip.

The weekday rush-hour periods — before 9:30 a.m. and between 3 and 7 p.m. — are the most crowded. If possible, plan your trip to avoid those times.

If you lose an item on a bus or train or in a station, please call Lost & Found at 202-962-1195 or visit our Web site.
