

THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AGENDA 2030 AND THE FUTURE OF THE MULTILATERAL TRADING SYSTEM

Wednesday, 16 December 2015
15:00 - 17:30

Churchill Ball Room, Sarova Stanley Hotel, Kimathi St, Nairobi City, Kenya

In light of the newly adopted SDGs, there is a need to transform these aspirations into an implementation agenda. This panel session will explore the interaction between the trade-targets included in the SDGs and the future of the multilateral trading system.

Key note address

Deodat Maharaj (Deputy Secretary-General, Commonwealth Secretariat)
Dr Mukhisa Kituyi (Secretary-General, UNCTAD)

Key note speech

Dr Bernard Hoekman
(Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies, European University Institute)

Panellists

Ambassador Modest Jonathan Mero (Tanzania)
Ambassador Marion Williams (Barbados)
Honorable Amelia Kyambadde (Trade Minister of Uganda - TBC)
Ricardo Meléndez-Ortiz (ICTSD)
Dr Ratnakar Adhikari (EIF)
Dr Debapriya Battacharya (Centre for Policy Dialogue)
Professor Rorden Wilkinson (University of Sussex)

Reception

17:30 - 19:00 - Sarova Stanley Hotel