

Intergovernmental Group of Experts on Consumer Protection Law and Policy
7th Session, 3 - 4 July 2023, Geneva, Switzerland and online

Voluntary Peer Review of Consumer Protection Law and Policy: Gabon

Monday, 3 July 2022 (15:30 - 18:00)
Palais des Nations, Room XIX (Third Floor) and online

In its resolution 70/186 of 22 December 2015 on Consumer Protection,<sup>1</sup> the United Nations General Assembly mandated the Intergovernmental Group of Experts on Consumer Protection Law and Policy to conduct voluntary peer reviews of national consumer protection laws and policies of member States, as implemented by national consumer protection authorities.

The purpose of the voluntary peer reviews is to provide an expert assessment of the effectiveness of consumer protection law; to identify the challenges to be addressed and areas to be improved in the legal and institutional frameworks; to assess the consumer protection awareness of relevant stakeholders and their contributions in this area; to formulate and recommend appropriate measures; and to assist countries in implementing the recommendations.

In 2022, Gabon volunteered to undergo this exercise focusing on the legal, institutional, and operational aspects of consumer protection in the country. The UNCTAD secretariat produced a background report,<sup>2</sup> whose overview is available in all official United Nations languages.<sup>3</sup>

This report will serve as a basis for the peer review discussions. The review panel will include representatives of the consumer protection authorities of Morocco, Viet Nam, and the United States of America. In addition, speakers from the floor will have an opportunity to contribute to the discussion. The interactive peer review will provide the Gabonese consumer protection authority with a unique opportunity to exchange experiences with peers around the world.
