

United Nations Commission on Science and Technology for Development
2025-2026 Inter-sessional Panel
In-person Meeting
17 November 2025, 10:00-18:00 (Geneva time)

Information Note for Participants

1. Introduction and draft provisional agenda

The Commission on Science and Technology for Development (CSTD) 2025-2026 inter-sessional panel will take place on 17 November in Room XVI, Building A of the Palais des Nations, Geneva. The session will commence at 10:00 a.m.

The Notification, programme, along with all other relevant documentation, are available at: <https://unctad.org/meeting/commission-science-and-technology-development-2025-2026-inter-sessional-panel>

2. Participation

The list of members of the Commission is available at: <https://unctad.org/topic/commission-on-science-and-technology-for-development/membership>.

International organizations and member States of the United Nations that are not members of the Commission may attend the session as observers. Non-government organizations wishing to attend the session as observers should hold consultative status with the Economic and Social Council or accreditation with the World Summit on the Information Society.

3. Registration

Online registration is mandatory for all participants. It should be completed online at <https://indico.un.org/event/1012800/>.

To facilitate the approval of registrations, permanent missions are requested to confirm the composition of their delegation via note verbale or email by 31 October 2025. Nominations and related communications concerning representation at the session should be sent to cstd@un.org.

Guidelines for Indico registration: <https://conf.unog.ch/indico-help/en/video-tutorials>

4. Badging and Access to the Palais des Nations and the Conference Room

Upon approval of the registration, participants will receive a digital badge consisting of their photo, a quick response (QR) code and the name and date of the meeting. It should be downloaded to a mobile telephone or other mobile device. Participants may also print the digital badge in order to use the QR code.

Before entering the Palais des Nations, participants are requested to scan their badges at the United Nations Security Service, Pregny Gate entrance, 14 avenue de la Paix. The Security Service is open from 8:00 to 17:00.

Because of the security measures in force, participants are strongly advised to arrive before 9 a.m. to complete entry procedures in good time and proceed to the meeting in Building A of the Palais. Participants are requested to carry a passport or similar national identity card with them.

Taxis are not allowed to enter the grounds of the Palais des Nations. Visitors should therefore be dropped off at the indicated entrance gates. Furthermore, luggage may not be brought into the buildings unless the Security Service gives special clearance.

The meeting will be held in Room XVI situated on the 5th floor of Building A (Entrance doors A15 or A13). For reference, please refer to the map of the Palais des Nations.

5. Arrangement of the conduct of discussions

Delegations are invited to participate in the discussions by requesting the floor. During the sessions, delegates can request the floor by raising their country nameplate in the room.

Delegates are asked to observe the time limit of 5 minutes for interventions during the sessions.

To facilitate interpretation, delegates may submit a copy of their written interventions in advance to cstd@un.org not later than 10 November and indicate whether they should be made available on the event website.

The session will be held through a simultaneous interpretation in the six official languages of the United Nations.

6. Cafeteria and bars

The UN cafeteria, located on the ground floor of Building A, is open from Monday to Friday, 11:30 to 14:00.

The Concordia Bar on the second floor of Building A is open from Monday to Friday, 8:30 to 15:00.

The Delegates' Bar on the third floor of Building A-C is open from Monday to Friday, 8:30 to 15:00.
