Trade and Development Board Sixty-eighth session

Geneva, 21 June to 2 July 2021

The sixty-eighth session of the Trade and Development Board will be held from 21 June to 2 July 2021. The session will open on Monday, 21 June, at 10 a.m. The provisional agenda and its annotations will be published in document TD/B/68/1. The format of the meeting (virtual or hybrid) will be communicated in due time.

Participation

Online registration is mandatory for all those wishing to attend the session. To do so, please use the following link: Trade and Development Board, sixty-eighth session.

Permanent representatives of States members of the Board are requested to inform the UNCTAD secretariat by 17 June 2021 of the name and title of their representative(s). Kindly note that the credential letter of your representative(s) should be uploaded on to the system during the online registration process.

Other participants (i.e. representatives of members of UNCTAD that are not members of the Board and representatives of specialized agencies, non-governmental organizations and intergovernmental bodies wishing to attend as observers) are also eligible to participate in the session as observers and should register online using the above link by the same date.

Any enquiries concerning registration should be sent to the UNCTAD secretariat, Intergovernmental Support Service, Palais des Nations, CH-1211 Geneva 10; e-mail: meetings@unctad.org.

Logistics

Preparations to organize the meeting through a remote simultaneous interpretation platform with the six official languages of the United Nations are at an advanced stage. The link for formal virtual meeting of the Board will be sent one day in advance of the start of the session to the email address used for registration.

Delegations wishing to take the floor during the formal virtual meeting will be requested to register on a speakers list. A notification with further details on the speakers list will be circulated in due course.
