NOTIFICATION

Commission on Science and Technology for Development Intersessional panel meeting

Geneva, 25–26 October 2022

The Commission on Science and Technology for Development will hold its 2022–2023 intersessional panel meeting at the Palais des Nations, Geneva, with physical and remote participation, on 25 and 26 October 2022, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 3 to 6 p.m. each day. The meeting will be held in English only.

The panel will address the following two priority themes:

- Theme 1: Technology and innovation for cleaner and more productive and competitive production
- Theme 2: Ensuring safe water and sanitation for all: A solution through science, technology and innovation

The Commission will also review progress made in the implementation of the outcomes of the World Summit on the Information Society.

Draft papers on the priority themes will be circulated by the secretariat in due course. The findings and recommendations of the panel will be considered at the twenty-sixth session of the Commission in 2023.

Participation and registration

Participants will include representatives from national Governments, international organizations, the private sector and civil society. Representatives of other organizations, including non-governmental organizations in the general and special categories, should hold consultative status with the Economic and Social Council or have received accreditation from the World Summit on the Information Society.

Registration is mandatory and should be completed as early as possible. Registration should be completed online at <https://indico.un.org/event/1000926/>.

Logistics

The meeting will be held with physical participation, in room XVIII of the Palais des Nations, and remote participation. A link to the formal virtual meeting will be sent to registered participants, at the email address used for registration, one day in advance of the start of the meeting. To facilitate approval of registration, permanent missions should confirm the list of participating delegates by means of a note verbale or by email by 17 October 2022.

Before entering the Palais des Nations, participants are requested to collect their badges at the United Nations Security Service, Pregny Gate entrance, 14 avenue de la Paix. The Security Service is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Because of the security measures in force, participants are strongly advised to arrive before 9 a.m. in order to complete entry procedures in good time and proceed to the meeting in Building E of the Palais. Participants are requested to carry a passport or similar national identity card. Taxis are not allowed to enter the grounds of the Palais des Nations; therefore, visitors will be dropped off at the entrance gates. Furthermore, luggage may not be brought into the buildings unless the Security Service grants special clearance.
