

This webinar will bring together key stakeholders in the maritime industry in Africa and beyond to discuss and address the vulnerabilities faced by global supply chains, particularly at critical chokepoints.

Webinar on maritime transport and trade in Africa

20 November 2024

11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. (EAT)

Zoom: <https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJEod-6sqTwuH9M6qMWxocePtudqus5xHoYE>

Programme

Wednesday, 20 November

- 11:00 a.m. – 11:10 a.m. Opening Remarks
- Ms. Diane Sayinzoga, Chief, Regional Office for Africa, UNCTAD
 - Mr. Jan Hoffmann, Head, Trade Logistics Branch, UNCTAD
- 11:15 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. Presentation of the Report
- Mr. Jan Hoffmann, Head, Trade Logistics Branch, UNCTAD

11:30 a.m. – 12:00
p.m.

Discussants/Experiences from Selected countries

- Mr. Dumisano Ntuli, Chief Director: Policy & Legislation, Department of Transport - Pretoria, South Africa
- Mr. Alain Patrick Mpila Ayissi, Senior Advisor for Project Management & Transport Infrastructure - Kribi Port Authority, Cameroon
- Ms. Luisa Rodriguez, Economic Affairs Officer, UNCTAD (Insights from the Sustainable Smart Port Assessment in Port Louis, Mauritius)

12:00 p.m. – 12:20
p.m.

Questions and Answers

Moderator: Ms. Judith Ameso, Economic Affairs Officer, UNCTAD

12:20 p.m. – 12:30
p.m.

Closing Remarks

- Ms. Diane Sayinzoga, Chief, Regional Office for Africa - UNCTAD

