

Launch of a new phase: Advancing the development and use of metrics for policymaking beyond GDP

Agenda

21 October, 14:00–15:30 (UTC) / 22 October, 7:00–8:30 (UTC)

14:00–14:10 (21 Oct)	Welcome and opening remarks
7:00–7:10 (22 Oct)	Amina J. Mohammed (UN Deputy Secretary-General), Anu Peltola (UNCTAD)
	✓ Purpose of the information session ✓ The Beyond GDP journey: from the 2030 Agenda and SDG target 17.19 to the Pact for the Future and Counting What Counts
14:10–14:25 (21 Oct)	Counting What Counts: the basis of country experimentation
7:10–7:25 (22 Oct)	Daniel Hopp (UNCTAD)
	✓ Overview of the conceptual framework ✓ The Beyond GDP dashboard and recommended indicators ✓ Implications for national measurement and policymaking
14:25–14:40 (21 Oct)	From framework to practice: use of metrics in decision-making
7:25–7:40 (22 Oct)	Heriberto Tapia (UNDP)
	✓ How can Beyond GDP metrics change policy focus? ✓ Sharing good practices in integrating metrics in decision-making
14:40–14:55 (21 Oct)	Building a peer-learning network
7:40–7:55 (22 Oct)	Anu Peltola (UNCTAD)
	✓ Beyond GDP Data for Action Hub ✓ Expressions of interest process to join peer-learning ✓ Development partners and synergies across initiatives
14:55–15:20 (21 Oct)	Open discussion
7:55–8:20 (22 Oct)
	✓ Country and stakeholder reflections ✓ Questions and answers
15:20–15:30 (21 Oct)	Next steps and closing
8:20–8:30 (22 Oct)	Heriberto Tapia (UNDP)
	✓ Timeline for expressions of interest ✓ Upcoming webinars and engagement activities ✓ Key resources and contact points