

Oceans Economy and Ecosystem services: Sustainable fisheries and coastal tourism

UNCTAD/UNEP/CAF, Official side-event to the CBD COP 13

Youth Group Meeting Room, Sunrise building, Second Floor, Hotel Moon Palace

Cancun, Mexico

13:15–15:00, 5 December 2016

AGENDA

Chairpersons:

- Mrs. Ligia Castro, Cooperate Director of Environment and Climate Change, Development Bank of Latin America (CAF) and
- Mr. Lucas Assuncao, Head, Trade, Environment, Climate Change and Sustainable Development Branch TED/DITC , UNCTAD

Speakers:

- The role of ecosystem conservation for fish stocks and other marine species conservations, Mr. Balakrishna Pisupati, Head of Biodiversity, Land and Governance Programme DELC, UNEP
- The role economic incentives and their impact on the fisheries sectors: the case of harmful fish subsidies, Mr. David Vivas Eugui, Legal Officer, TED/DITC UNCTAD
- Marine Protected Areas and their role in ecosystem service provision, sustainable fisheries and tourism, Ms. Katia Karousakis, Biodiversity Team Leader, Environment Directorate, OECD
- Sustainable use of marine resources and sustainable coastal tourism: the case of Latin America, Mr. Federico Vignati, Principal Executive, CAF
- Incentives to promote deeper linkages between sustainable fisheries and tourism, Ms. Tundi Agardy, Mares Trends

Q&A and Interactive debate

Closing remarks