

Dr. Rajendra Jagdale

Director General & CEO, Science and Technology Park, Pune, India

Former professor of Life sciences at the university of Pune, serial entrepreneur, established several high-tech incubators and Science Parks, set up over 1300 start-ups. STI policy specialist. Risk capital management expert. Visiting professor at several universities overseas. Globally connected with best known Innovation clusters. Motivational speaker.

Closely involved in drafting start-ups/incubators and Science Park policies of Central and State governments in India. Founder of Incubator association of India (ISBA), established several CII (Centres of Invention, Innovation, Incubation), involved in drafting Innovation Policies of universities. Founder of Maharashtra State Innovation Council. Conducted several STI policy workshops.

