

Global Supply Chain Forum
Barbados 21-24 May 2024

HONDURAS NTFC

Best practices and key factors for success

Karen Sosa

Trade Facilitation Coordinator and Negotiator
NTFC Technical Secretariat
Ministry of Economic Development

HM Revenue
& Customs

Broad and inclusive participation in the NTFC

Under the coordination of the Ministry of Economic Development.

Institutional involvement of a wide range of border agencies and key trade facilitation stakeholders in the NTFC, including:

- private-sector participation with voice and voting rights
- gender perspective and women’s leadership

Capacity-building and empowerment of NTFC members.

SIECE – SDE
Coordinator

CONFACO

Technical Committee or Working Groups

- Industrial sector
- Export sector
- Logistics sector
- Transport sector
- Productive sector
- Agribusiness sector

Technical Secretariat

Directorate-General for Economic Integration and Trade Policy

Full membership through the following agencies (Article 5 and 6 of PCM-039-2018):

- Vice ministry of Economic Integration and Foreign Trade (SDE)
- National Agricultural Health Service
- Vice ministry of Health
- Border Police Services
- Vice ministry of Transportation
- Vice ministry of Finance and Budget
- Honduran Customs Administration
- Health Regulatory Agency
- National Institute of Migration
- Honduran Council of Private Enterprise (COHEP) with representatives from the:

Use of digital tools to monitor trade facilitation reforms

Reform Tracker digital monitoring tool for the implementation of trade facilitation reforms, enhancing:

- interagency coordination
- transparency and communication
- awareness and accountability
- accelerated implementation of WTO TFA commitments and beyond

Notifications and other submissions

0 Overdue notifications

NTFC with regional outreach and impact

Active role and leadership in the Central American region, including its involvement in the:

- Central American Economic Integration Process (SIECA)
- Central American Integration System (SICA)

First Regional NTFC meeting (2022) and upcoming Second Regional NTFC meeting (June, 2024)

Annual implementation plan approved by the COMIECO (Council for Ministers of Economic Integration)

