

Webinar on Combating inequality and poverty in Tanzania

Date: 30 April 2024

Time: 15:00 -16:30 p.m. (Tanzania time)

The United Republic of Tanzania has achieved significant economic growth and social development in the past two decades. However, progress on poverty reduction has been slow due to, among others, income inequality. This seminar will examine the trends on poverty and inequality in Tanzania, and discuss some of the policies being implemented to address them.

Chairperson

- H.E.M. Abdallah Saleh Possi, Permanent Representative, Mission of the United Republic of Tanzania to the United Nations Office and other international organizations in Geneva

Opening remarks

- Patrick Osakwe, Chief of Branch, UNCTAD

Panelists

- Moritz Meier-Ewert, Economic Affairs Officer, UNCTAD
- Ellykedo Ngonyani, Director of Policy and Planning, Ministry of Planning and Investment, Tanzania
- Donald Mmari, Executive Director, REPOA, Dar es Salaam
- Franklyn Lisk, Professor, University of Warwick

Interactive discussion

