

Training Workshop on Trade in Services Negotiations for AU-CFTA Negotiators

Nairobi, Kenya 24-28 August 2015

Introduction of the Trade in Services Negotiation Simulation Exercise and composition of teams

Luisa Rodriguez – Michiko Hayashi

Outline

- What is the exercise is about?
- How do we "play this game"?
  - Preparing yourselves for the game
  - What happens on the day of the game
- Teams and handling of confidential mandates

What is the exercise is about?

- Simulating consultations amongst national stakeholders as regards a country's possible commitments under the GATS on financial services
  - Expected outcome: A consensual services offer
  - Subsector: Banking (7B, excludes insurance)
- Participants assigned to 5 groups of stakeholders
  - Leadership in consultations: Ministry of Trade

How do we "play this game"? ... Preparing yourselves

- One week before...
  - Read carefully: (i) the general exercise and (ii) the background materials sent to you
- Two days before (today)...
  - Read carefully the confidential mandate of your team.
- 3. Before the day of the simulation (today & tomorrow)...
  - Discuss within your Group about the main policy objectives that you would like to see the Government put in place in light of the request of foreign services supplier
  - Write down the proposal of your group
  - Nominate a spokesperson for your group

How do we "play this game"? ...On the day of the event

- Simulation taking place on: Wednesday 26 from 14:00 to 17:00
- 14:00-15:15 | Spokespersons present the position of each Group to the Ministry of Trade (max. 15 min/group).
  - The other groups may use this time to hold bilateral meetings to exchange views and build alliances.
- 15:15-15:30 | Coffee break
- 15:30-16:00 | The Ministry of Trade will prepare its position in the form of a GATS schedule (Break-out time for the other groups)
- 16:00-16:30 | Meeting convened by the Ministry to present the country's position on liberalization of the sector.
  - Other groups/stakeholders will be allowed to comment on the Government position (where it meets and diverges from the group's interests)
- 16:30-17:00 | UNCTAD debrief the participants on substantive elements and negotiation techniques related to this exercise