

Science, Technology & Innovation Policy Review

RWANDA

UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY FOR DEVELOPMENT

10 May 2017, Palais des Nations, Geneva

Funding: January 2016

Preparation & desk research: February-March 2016

1st Mission, interviews, data: April 2016

First impressions: CSTD May 2016

Research & preparation of inputs: May-July 2016

Drafting: September-October 2016

2nd Mission & National workshop: December 2016

Revision: February-April 2017

CSTD Advanced Draft: May 2017

Key question and context

Investment in STI > Economic transformation

A question of balance

STIP Review structure:

- Executive Summary
- Part I: STI policy and innovation
- Part II: STI policy in sectors and industries
- Part III: Conclusions and recommendations

Part I: STI policy and innovation

- Commitment
- Vision of innovation
- Firms, R&D/I funding, education-employment
- Institutional setting

Part II: STI policy in sectors and industries

- Energy
- ICTs
- Agriculture
- Industry

Part III: Conclusions and recommendations

- National System of Innovation
- Linkages: human capacity-education
- Technological capabilities in industry
- Innovation funding
- R&D critical mass + critical purpose

Next steps?

- Final draft
- National launch
- Follow-up: National STI Strategy
- Follow-up: Capacity building for implementation
- CSTD 2018

Thank you!

Contact:

Dimo Calovski

Economic affairs officer

UNCTAD/DTL/STICT

Room E.7051 Palais des Nations, Geneva

email: dimo.calovski@unctad.org

telephone +41 22 917 5946