

The Permanent Mission of the Kingdom of Morocco, the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Rwanda and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) are pleased to invite you to participate in the High-Level Panel on Migration and Structural Transformation in Africa

25 September 2018

Conference Room IV
United Nations Headquarters, New York

12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

If your Delegation wishes to take the floor, kindly RSVP to UNCTADNY1@un.org, including the name and title of the speakers.

Due to limited seating available, a special pass will be needed to attend the event. Please RSVP to UNCTADNY1@un.org with your name and contact information to ensure that a pass is made available.

The main purpose of the event is to provide a platform to discuss how to maximize the economic and developmental impacts of migration.

Pioneering work on this subject in Africa is the focus of UNCTAD's Economic Development in Africa Report 2018: Migration for Structural Transformation.

The High-Level Panel seeks to foster integrated policies and strategies, deepen cooperation and partnerships, and enhance support to utilize migration management to strengthen the pooling of resources across the humanitarian, environmental, security and development pillars for ensuring an economically sustainable structural transformation.

It will bring together high-level officials from member States, the African Union, various organizations, civil society, academia, and the media.

For further information about the event, please see UNCTAD's website.

Connect with UNCTAD

