

Trade and Development Board
Forty-seventh executive session
30 June 2009

Interactive discussion on African food security
"The lessons from the recent global crisis"

Panellist: Emeritus Professor Marcel Mazoyer
Comparative Agriculture and Agricultural Development, National Agricultural Institute in Paris

Dr. Marcel Mazoyer is currently Emeritus Professor at the Institut National Agronomique Paris-Grignon, and is Rene Dumont's successor as director of the Chair of Comparative Agriculture and Agricultural Development.

Mazoyer was Chairman of the Program Committee of the FAO (1983-1993) and head of the Department of Economics and Rural Sociology of the INRA (1972-1975).

He is the author, with Laurence Roudart, of a "Histoire des Agricultures du Monde" (Seuil).